Taste of Montréal SWEEPSTAKES

In Montréal, there's always SOMETHING ON THE MENU.

In Montréal, nothing represents our rich culture better than our menus. Food is a constant cause for celebration – a feeling that's shared by consumers and chefs alike. Each meal is prepared with creativity, ingenuity and integrity – purposefully designed to tantalize your taste buds and leave you begging for more.

The city's culinary spirit has spurred the development of some of the world's most iconic restaurants. From quaint bistros serving European-inspired dinners, to charming local eateries serving up sweet treats, Montréal is a mecca for food-lovers of all shapes and sizes.

SUGGESTED ITINERARY FOR A GETAWAY

Day 1: OLD MONTRÉAL

Start your day at the charm-filled breakfast and brunch locale Le Cartet, then head to the Pointe-à-Callière Montréal Museum of Archeology and History. Once you've recharged your batteries, visit the inimitable Chez L'Épicier for lunch, and then Canadian Maple Delights for a palate-pleasing desert. If you have energy after that, walk down to Old Port to discover the Montreal Science Centre. When the time comes for dinner, check out the delicious Le Local, the charming Boris Bistro, or the superb Accords Wine Bar and Restaurant.

Day 2: DOWNTOWN

After spending the day in quaint Old Montreal, visit the bustling downtown scene. Start the day with breakfast at Café Vasco da Gama for a delectable omelet or wrap, and then head over to the magnificent Montreal Museum of Fine Arts for a dose of culture. For lunch, try Brasserie T or the F Bar. When you're done, stroll through the Entertainment District for an outdoor show or event. For dinner, treat yourself to a gastronomical feast at Restaurant Europea, and if the mood strikes, head over to Alexandre et Fils for a late-night drink.

Day 3: LITTLE ITALY, MILE END AND THE PLATEAU MONT-ROYAL

After visiting downtown, it's time to check out some of Montreal's most diverse neighborhoods. Begin your day in the Mile End for breakfast at Fairmount Bagel Bakery and to explore neat places like Une île en Amérique and Poterie Manu Reva. Afterward, head over to Little Italy and visit Jean-Talon Market, the largest outdoor public market in North America. Save some room for Le Filet, a fish and seafood restaurant nestled in the heart of the Plateau on Mont-Royal Avenue. Not a fish lover? Visit Baldwin Pharmacie, a funky neighbourhood bar with delicious cocktails and lots of charm.
